Hoffa Blasted By AFL-CIO

Reports Links Teamster Boss To Hoodlums

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—The AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee today practically read Teamster boss James R. Hoffa out of the big labor federation. It issued a report linking Hoffa with what it called a rogue's gallery of hoodlums.

The hard-hitting report served on the Teamsters found the 1½-million-member union — the nation's largest — to be dominated by corrupt leaders.

It put Hoffa, union President Dave Beck and West Coast Teamster chief Frank W. Brewster in that category and sternly pointed to what it said was a Teamsters Union failure to give any adequate answers to Senate Rackets Committee disclosures.

Council To Act Next Week

The findings—due for formal approval by the AFL-CIO Executive Council in New York next week—strongly hinted that the 15-million-member foundation will kick out the Teamsters if Hoffa is retained in any office of his union, much less its presidency.

Hoffa, 44-year-old Detroit national vice president of the union, is running for Beck's job as Teamsters president. Beck, after being embroiled in union scandals, has announced he won't stand for re-election at the Teamsters convention starting Sept. 30 at Miami Beach, Fla.

McClellan Blasts Hoffa

Hoffa's strong grip over Teamsters affairs has weakened somewhat in the wake of August hearings into his affairs by the Senate Rackets Committee. Renewed hearings on Hoffa are scheduled for next Tuesday, just in advance of the Teamsters convention.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said today Hoffa "committed flagrant, willful and contemptible perjury" by testifying he could not recall matters raised at the Rackets Committee hearings.

Addressing a trade association convention in New York, McClellan did not mention Hoffa by name but described testimony only Hoffa had given.

Esther Brings Flood Threat

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18 (AP)—Tropical storm Esther broke up into squalls as it moved inland today, threatening areas of three states with floods.

There was little wind damage as Esther hit the Louisiana coast, but high tides and heavy rains took three lives by drowning and ran property damage into the thousands of dollars.

The Weather Bureau predicted the deluge that hit the Louisiana and Mississippi coast would spread into east-central Mississippi and Alabama during the night, then farther to the northeast tomorrow.

Buras, about 50 miles southeast of New Orleans, received 13.36 inches of rain in 24 hours, while New Orleans got almost 7 inches and Biloxi, Miss., on the Gulf of Mexico, got 8.

A small twister struck Boothville, about 70 miles southeast of New Orleans, during the height of Esther's winds and rain. It damaged one house.

Sessions Appointed

NEWPORT, R.I., Sept. 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower today picked Edson O. Sessions, Chicago management consultant, as deputy postmaster general. He succeeds Maurice H. Stans, who was shifted to the post of deputy budget director.

42 Face Loss Of Passports For Red Tour

State Dept. Rules China Travel Ban 'Wilfully Violated'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—The State Department announced today it will seize passports of 42 young Americans who went to China, when they return to American soil.

A formal department ruling charged they "wilfully violated" a government travel ban by touring the China mainland as guests of the Peiping Communist regime.

The department announced the move at the same time it disclosed a final decision against renewing the passport of William Worthy, who visited Red China last December in his role as a correspondent of the Baltimore Afro-American.

Worthy's application has been rejected, the department said, mainly on the grounds he has refused to promise to abide by regulations.

Action Can Be Appealed

A State Department spokesman hinted, however, that the 42 young Americans as well as Worthy might regain their passports if they pledged never to violate restrictions again.

All were given an opportunity to appeal the department's action. They may turn to State Department passport officers for a review, or present their case to the appeals board.

The move to seize the passports had been foreshadowed by a warning given last month by Undersecretary of State Christian Herter. The 42 tourists, then attending the World Youth Festival in Moscow, were told their visit would help Red Chinese propaganda.

The department said all the students will be given a formal letter, once they emerge from Red China saying:

1. Their passports will be stamped valid only for direct return to the United States.

60 Days To Head Home

2. If they have not left foreign territory for the United States within 60 days, their passports will automatically be canceled.
3. Their passports will be picked up by American immigration authorities once they return to American territory.
4. The passport office will review the "tentative decision" to act against them, on request. These appeals can be made either in person, in writing, or with an attorney.

Butler Rejects Demand He Quit

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 18 (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said today a third party may develop next year over the civil rights question.

He also turned back a demand that he resign or be fired over his position on the controversial subject.

The demand came from Neville Bennett, South Carolina Democratic state chairman, after Butler declared the party will not retreat from its stand for enforcement of court orders on integration of races.

"I will not resign. I don't believe they're going to fire me," Butler quickly told a news conference at the start of a two-day regional meeting on organization of the party for the 1958 general election.

The conference includes party leaders from Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Arkansas.

Production Of Flu Vaccine Falls Behind Initial Goal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Production of Asian flu vaccine has fallen behind the initial goal but the Public Health Service said today it still estimated 85 million doses will be produced by Dec. 31.

The service had a goal of eight million doses by mid-September but so far only 5,430,442 doses have been released.

A spokesman said production generally "is coming about as expected and there is no reason to change" the estimate of 85 million doses. This figure was announced last month by Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney.

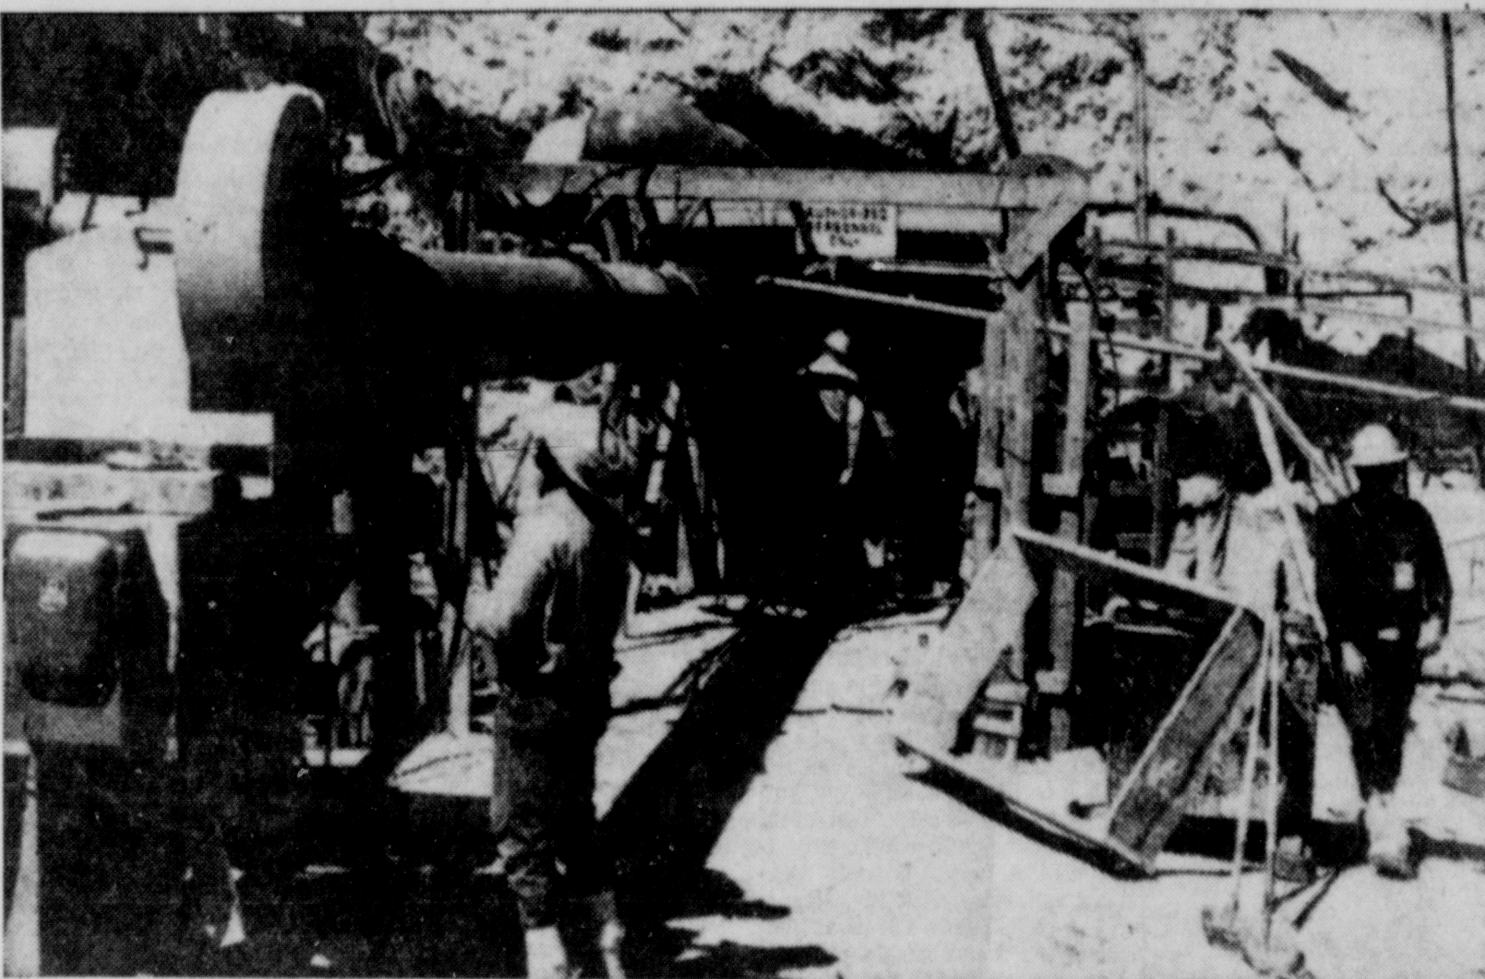

There have been no unexpected developments to influence the production rate, the spokesman said. The service now estimates there are about 65,000 cases of Asian flu across the country. This represented an increase of 15,000 since its previous estimate on Sept. 12.

New figures will be made public Friday. A spokesman said these will doubtless be higher in view of reports now being received of flu outbreaks in states from New York to Texas.

School-age children were hit by the new outbreaks and a number of schools were closed.

States reporting significant outbreaks in some communities included Texas, Mississippi, Florida, Missouri, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Oklahoma.

A Board of Health report showed 24,000 cases in Mississippi, with 12 counties nearing the epidemic stage.

Faubus Sitting Tight As Crucial Hearing Nears

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 18 (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, nearing zero hour in his 16-day deadlock with the federal government, held two more long conferences behind closed doors today—and appeared to be sitting tight.

The hours ticked away with no sign that Faubus will attempt to avoid the crucial hearing Friday morning in Federal Court.

However, an informant high in Democratic party councils in Arkansas, said he understood the governor will go into court and that an attorney will make two motions at the outset:

1. That U.S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies disqualify himself and step down from the hearing.
2. That Faubus be permitted to see the secret report prepared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Faubus, the source said, will be represented by attorney Tom Harper, of Pine Bluff, Ark., Harper is chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

The informant, who could not be identified, is a friend of Congressman Hays (D-Ark). Hays was in conference all day both on Tuesday and today.

At the governor's mansion today, one of his aides, Arnold Sikes, was asked about the report. He declined to confirm or deny it, but said, "Tom Harper might be among the attorneys he (the governor) will use. But I can't discuss the legal proceedings."

Judge Davies handed down the original ruling ordering that Central High School be integrated. Faubus has characterized Davies' action as "high handed and arbitrary."

The governor said recently he has not changed his opinion.

It was Faubus' action in sending the National Guard to the high school, the night of Sept. 2, with orders to bar Negroes from enrolling, that brought him into conflict with the federal government.

Dulles Applies Final Touches To U.N. Speech

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 18 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles put the finishing touches today on his major policy address outlining to the United Nations the U.S. position on critical East-West issues.

While the U.N. Assembly prepared to come to grips once more with the question of admitting Red China and additional controversial issues, Dulles met with representatives of other Western Nations. He conferred with the foreign ministers of Canada and Australia, presumably to fill them in on the speech to be delivered to the Assembly tomorrow morning.

India has asked that Red China's membership be made a subject for Assembly consideration. Britain and a number of other nations have said they will support the U.S. request to postpone discussion for another year.

The United States is confident it will succeed, as it has in the past, in keeping the U.N. door closed to the Chinese Communists.

The 16-nation Steering Committee approved inclusion of such controversial items as Algeria and Cyprus for Assembly consideration, but it did not get around to Red China. The committee will meet again tomorrow afternoon.

Dulles invited heads of the various U.N. delegations to a reception tonight at the Hotel Waldorf.

He has conferred with leaders of various delegations since his arrival in New York, among them Sir Leslie Munnro of New Zealand, who was elected Assembly president yesterday.

Munnro set the opening of the general policy debate for 10:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Radio and television networks have scheduled Dulles' speech for 11 a.m. EDT.

Dulles will speak first in what will be a top-level clash with the Soviet Union on hot East-West issues, including the Middle East and disarmament.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko is set to reply on Friday.

Kasper Released Under $2,500 Bond

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 18 (AP)—John Kasper was released from jail here today under $2,500 cash bond and his attorney said the roving segregationist would leave shortly for Washington, D.C.

In jail here since last Wednesday for his activities during efforts to start mixed public school classes, Kasper declined to discuss his plans.

"I'm not making any comment at this time," he told newsmen.

The New Jersey native was indicted last Friday by the Davidson County grand jury on a charge of inciting to riot and his trial has been set for Nov. 18 in Criminal Court. Charges stemmed from his activities in opposing integration of first-grade classes, as ordered by federal court.

Phone Talks Continue

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Negotiations for striking telephone equipment installers and the Western Electric Co. continued negotiations today in an effort to work out a new contract settlement.

Daylong meetings with Federal Mediator Walter A. Maggilo failed to bring any visible progress toward agreement. The strike began Monday.

Eisenhower, Negro Leader Will Confer

Meeting Requested By N.Y. Rep. Powell

NEWPORT, R.I., Sept. 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower today agreed to meet with Negro Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) to discuss school integration problems generally.

No date or place has been set yet for the session. Powell bolted the Democratic party in the presidential race in 1956 to support Eisenhower for re-election.

Powell sent Eisenhower a telegram yesterday requesting that the President meet "immediately" with him and other Negro leaders.

Eisenhower replied from the vacation White House today: "... I shall arrange a meeting with you and have directed my staff in Washington to confer with you for this purpose."

Eisenhower took no note of Powell's suggestion that other Negro leaders be included in the forthcoming conference.

Indications at the President's headquarters today were that others would not be invited. But there was no definite word.

In requesting a meeting, Powell noted that Eisenhower already has conferred with Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas on school integration and with Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) on civil rights generally.

Powell said further: "... I feel now that in the light of the growing crisis, it would be helpful for you to get the Negroes' point of view directly."

In granting Powell's request for a conference, Eisenhower took the occasion in a telegram to the congressman to set forth his first public praise of the civil rights bill he signed into law Sept. 9. The new law does not go as far in that field as the administration had proposed.

"Hootch" Plant Found In Prison

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 18 (AP)—A makeshift liquor plant built and operated by a group of tubercular convicts at Pontiac Penitentiary has been uncovered by prison guards. Director Joseph Bibb of the State Safety Department said today.

Lie detector tests and fingerprints on the apparatus showed at least six convicts were involved. Bibb said.

The 20-gallon outfit was discovered in a tunnel which carries steam pipes under the hospital. The convicts had hidden it under plywood.

The director said the convicts were making liquor for their own use.

Ingredients for the concoction, which included raisins, sugar, potato peelings and canned fruit juices, apparently were obtained by saving leftovers from meals or by theft from the kitchen, Bibb said.

'Satchmo' Gives Up Soviet Trip; Blasts Ike, Faubus

GRAND FORKS, N.D., Sept. 18 (AP)—Trumpet player Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong said last night he has given up plans for a government-sponsored trip to Russia because "the way they are treating my people in the South, the government can go to hell."

Here for a concert, Armstrong said President Eisenhower had "no guts" and described Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus as an "uneducated plow boy."

Armstrong today reaffirmed the statements he made to a Grand Forks Herald reporter. Shown a copy of the story that had been written on the basis of his remarks, Armstrong said "That's just fine. Don't take nothing out of that story. That's just what I said and still say."

Thai King Gives Junta Leader Legal Authority

BANGKOK, Sept. 18 (AP)—King Phumiphon Aduldet tonight invested Thailand's new strongman army Marshal Sarit Thanarat with legal power and shuffled the membership of Parliament.

The monarch named Sarit military custodian of Bangkok. Sarit headed the military junta that drove out Premier P. Pibulsonggram Monday night.

The deposed Premier disappeared and there were reports that the ruling junta is inviting him back home with promises for his personal safety.

The King dissolved the old Parliament and appointed 123 new representatives who are to serve until new elections can be held within three months.

The old Parliament had 283 members, of whom 160 were elected. The 123 appointed legislators are to run the national body until the remainder can be elected.

The King's selections were made on recommendations from Sarit's ruling junta.

They include Prince Wan, foreign minister in the old Cabinet and ex-president of the U.N. General Assembly; and Field Marshal Pinolunhawan, former defense minister and father-in-law of Police Gen. Phao Sriyanond, who left the country for Switzerland.

Actually, up to 99 per cent of the King's new appointees are believed to be holdovers from the last Parliament. Several former police officers were among the nominees.

The King's decree stressed that the 1932 constitution remains in effect.

There was no indication when a new Cabinet will be named.

Test Against Major Virus 80% Effective

Dr. Winston Price, Hopkins Scientist, Finds Preventive

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—The first successful vaccine against a major common cold virus was reported tonight. The Baltimore Sun said the vaccine was developed by Dr. Winston H. Price, Johns Hopkins University scientist.

In a copyright story in tomorrow's paper, Sun science writer Weldon Wallace reported the vaccine prevented colds caused by the JH virus in 80 per cent of 400 persons inoculated in a series of controlled tests.

The JH virus, isolated by Dr. Price in previous studies, caused 30 per cent of the common colds which came to his attention in investigations made over a two-year period.

The vaccine was made from the killed JH virus and produced no symptoms, discomfort or side effects whatsoever in persons who received it in Dr. Price's test, the paper said.

Although an unknown number of viruses are responsible for colds and Dr. Price's vaccine can't be expected to work against all of them, the Sun called it "the first breakthrough in finding a preventive for this ailment, one of mankind's most vexing complaints."

AMA Reserves Comment

In Chicago, a spokesman for the American Medical Assn. said other vaccines have been developed against the cold in recent years without notable success.

"They haven't proved too successful because colds are caused by so many different types of virus," he explained.

"On this particular vaccine, we can't comment until we've seen the complete scientific report," the spokesman said.

To produce immunity, two shots of the vaccine are given, the second following the first by four weeks.

"Samples of blood serum obtained by Dr. Price from hospitals all over the country revealed the presence of antibodies against this virus."

"Therefore it is one of the organisms which cause colds in all parts of the United States," the spokesman said.

Volunteers Used In Test

A technical account of the vaccine is in proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences now in print and soon to be released.

Boys training schools cooperated in the studies by Dr. Price, director of the Division of Medical Ecology of the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health.

Eight large groups of volunteers took part in the experiments and the vaccine was tested in an epidemic which occurred naturally.

In one group of 100 boys, 50 were given the vaccine, 25 were given a saline solution which produces no effects, and 25 were given a preparation from killed monkey tissue, the medium in which the virus was grown.

An outbreak of the colds from the JH virus occurred five weeks later, the paper reported, and 11 boys out of the 25 who received the saline solution caught colds. Twelve out of the 25 who got the monkey kidney tissue also caught colds. But only three of the 50 who received the Price vaccine developed cold symptoms.

Olney Resigns Justice Post

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Warren Olney III, chief of the Justice Department's criminal division since 1953, turned in his resignation today.

He said his departure would clear the way for a departmental reorganization to strengthen the enforcement of civil rights under new legislation.

President Eisenhower accepted Olney's resignation with regret and praised him for "highly dedicated service" in the civil rights field. Atty. Gen. Brownell also commended Olney for his work as an assistant attorney general since the beginning of the Eisenhower administration.

The resignation, effective Oct. 15, was announced at the President's vacation headquarters in Newport, R. I.

Olney gave no specific reason for leaving government service and his office here said he had not disclosed his plans. But the President, in his letter of acceptance, said he appreciated that the prosecutor was stepping out "for compelling personal reasons."

Legion Urges Pact Changes To Avert New 'Girard Cases'

President Asked To Seek Revision

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Sept. 18 (AP)—The American Legion called on President Eisenhower today to take the lead in seeking revision of status-of-forces agreements with foreign governments.

"It is our considered belief," the legion said, "that injustices to individuals have arisen from the administration of these treaties and agreements and will arise in the future unless pertinent provisions are modified."

Army Specialist William S. Girard is currently on trial in a Japanese court on charges he caused the death of a Japanese woman scavenging on a military firing range. The legion resolution, however, fails to mention his name.

Girard was turned over to the Japanese under a status-of-forces agreement and American Legion Commander W. C. (Dan) Daniel, of Danville, Va., said in his report to the convention yesterday that the case has brought the need for revision into "sharp focus."

Action by the legion's more than 3,000 delegates came after almost 45 minutes of debate over the phrasing of one section.

As adopted, the resolution calls on the President and Congress to incorporate these provisions in status-of-forces agreements:

1. That no member of the armed forces be subjected to trial by any foreign government for any act committed on a U.S. military post or in the line of duty.
2. That if the commander in the field determines the accused acted in the line of duty his decision is not subject to review.

Underground A-Bomb Blast Set For Today

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev., Sept. 18 (AP)—A small atomic bomb that may win a big place in the annals of science is set for firing tomorrow deep down under a desert mesa.

Its mission is twofold.

Earthquake specialists hope its shock waves, racing through the earth's crust and into its very heart, will reflect secrets of how our globe is built. But they say the waves will be less than 1,000th of the force of a real earthquake.

Nuclear scientists hope the shot will show that bombs can be tested underground with no escape of dangerous radioactivity.

The bomb is located in a chamber at the end of a zigzagging, 2,000-foot tunnel in the side of the mesa. The chamber is 800 feet below the surface. Shot time is 10 a.m.

Power of the device is estimated as the equivalent of 1,000 to 3,000 tons of TNT, small as A-bombs go. But when it is fired its heat will melt surrounding rock walls, vaporizing some of the stone. The rock will compress, then expand and crack. It won't be safe for humans to enter the room, even if there remains a way to get in for a century.

The nearest scientists will be at a control point 2½ miles away. They'll feel the ground heave, but the people outside the test area won't notice it. Observers expect to see little, except possibly rock slides and rising dust. Blast traps and a cane-handle curve at the end of the tunnel should prevent any escape of dust and fragments. The instruments that measure it will be fed by cables.

Rival Defends Indicted Paper

LEONARDTOWN, Md., Sept. 18 (AP)—A rival newspaper today came to the defense of The Enterprise, under indictment for criticizing the actions of a circuit judge.

The St. Mary's Beacon said in a front page editorial that, "It appears to us the grand jury might have acted hastily and perhaps ill advisedly" in returning indictments against Sheridan Fahnestock, publisher of The Enterprise, and Alfred Toombs, managing editor of the paper.

Both papers are weeklies published in St. Mary's County. The Beacon here, The Enterprise in Lexington Park.

The Enterprise, a frequent critic of Judge Philip H. Dorsey Jr., former Democratic political leader in the county, recently blasted his appointment of two boards of property review.

Judge Dorsey had the grand jury consider the articles and The Enterprise publisher and editor were indicted on charges of maintaining a public nuisance "by falsely and maliciously writing and publishing" the articles, and charged them on another count with obstructing justice.

The Beacon said that although it had supported Judge Dorsey in his election and does not necessarily agree with The Enterprise in its editorial position it feels "no judge is above being criticized."

"The decision of the grand jury appears to be a challenge to the freedom that is guaranteed to the press by the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States," The Beacon said.

The boy replied: "My father is the chief alcoholic in Grand Rapids."

Arlington Integration Order Is Stayed By Court

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 18 (AP)—An order for integration next Monday of four Arlington County, Va., white schools was suspended today by a federal judge pending an appeal.

Judge Albert V. Bryan of U. S. District Court granted a stay in his order of last Saturday which directed the admission of seven Negroes to the four schools.

School board attorneys requested the suspension, pending appeal to the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals, or the grounds that integration Monday would create a chaotic situation.

They said that under Virginia laws the integrated schools would be closed, affecting more than 5,000 pupils, and that state school funds would be cut off for the county.

Attorneys representing the seven Negro pupils argued that the board was merely seeking a further delay. They pointed out that the court already had issued an injunction barring pupil assignment on the basis of race and color alone.

These attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People had requested an immediate enforcement of Bryan's July 27 order directing integration of Arlington schools this fall.

In granting the stay, Bryan told attorneys it is a rare case indeed in which a trial court does not suspend execution of its order pending an appeal. The circumstances in this case, he added, did not in his opinion put the suit in such a rare class.

Buffalo Roundup, Pittsburgh Style

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18 (AP)—Buffalo may have disappeared from the plains but it was round-up time—Pittsburgh style—today at Allegheny County's South Park, within 10 miles of the steel city's skyscrapers.

The big animals—22 of them—became too numerous on the 20-acre range so county officials decided to ship half of the herd to the Reis Game Preserve at Cuba, N. Y.

The roundup required about three hours. One cow halted the corral and another knocked over a few fence posts before the city cowpokes got them into trucks.

Yale Requires Coats, Ties For All Meals

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 18 (AP)—Yale undergraduates returning to classes today ran into a new rule: Coats and ties are required for all meals in university dining halls.

It was the first such rule in recent history. Coats and ties have been required only for the evening meal and at Sunday dinner although arch-rival Harvard has had the requirement for some time.

"Not uniformity but neatness" is the aim of the new rule, said undergraduate dean Richard C. Carroll.

He said the average undergraduate's attire has brought "a great deal of criticism" from visitors.

Ohioans Win Plowing Titles

PEEBLES, Ohio, Sept. 18 (AP)—Two Ohio farmers outjockeyed 26 competitors to win the national contour and level-land plowing contest today.

The two contests were preludes to the world's championship plowing matches which start tomorrow as part of the World's Conservation Exposition and Plowing Contest.

Duane Mootz, 32-year-old farmer from Hillsboro, Ohio, scored 78½ points out of a possible 100 to win the contour championship. Lawrence Goettemoeller, 40, of Celina, Ohio, successfully defended his national level-land title, amassing 80 pounds despite a penalty for finishing four minutes past the 66 minutes allotted him.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—A workman dived from a barge and swam 250 feet today to rescue an 18-year-old from the Anacostia River.

Police said the youth, Alvin Austin of Washington, had removed his shoes and jumped into the river from the South Capital Street bridge.

William Frazier, 19, swam to Austin, grabbed him about the waist, and then swam to the south bank of the river about 75 feet away.

Austin was taken to Casualty Hospital, where aides said he apparently had suffered no serious effects.

Death Rate In "Open Heart" Surgery Drops

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—The death rate in "open heart" surgery cases has dropped markedly, a University of Minnesota surgeon reported yesterday.

Such surgery, developed in recent years, is performed inside the heart with the aid of mechanical heart-lung equipment.

Dr. C. Walter Lillehei said that among the last 40 cases treated by such methods at the university's hospital, only one death occurred.

He made the report at a meeting sponsored by the U.S. Public Health Service commemorating the 300th anniversary of the death of William Harvey, the 17th century English doctor who discovered the circulation of the blood.

Dr. Lillehei told a reporter later that this compared with a mortality rate of about 25 per cent when open heart surgery was first introduced only a few years ago.

He attributed the "very rapid and somewhat dramatic reduction" in mortality to refinements in heart-lung apparatus, improvements in surgical technique itself, and advances in post-operative care.

The memorial meeting was devoted to discussing the historical and modern-day aspects of the contribution to science made by William Harvey.

One of the speakers, Professor Chauncey D. Leake of Ohio State University, declared that Harvey, through his discovery of blood circulation, "is responsible for more life-saving and health promotion right now, 300 years after he died, than any other person alive or dead."

"Motorcade" Drives By Home

Negro Surgeon Withdraws His Son, 5, From Integrated School At Deale, Md.

DEALE, Md., Sept. 18 (AP)—A Negro surgeon withdrew his 5-year-old son from a newly-integrated school today "for fear of repercussions against both whites and Negroes who supported the boy's right to attend."

Dr. Harry N. Jones kept his son, Harry, at home today after watching a "motorcade" of white men drive by his house last night.

The Jones home is a block and a half from the desegregated school annex where Harry has been the only Negro student in a 26-pupil first grade class since school opened Sept. 5. The nearest Negro elementary school is six miles away.

The first grade meets in a former store serving as a temporary classroom in this small rural community, located in Anne Arundel County 15 miles south of Annapolis.

The four front windows in the classroom and an adjoining office were smashed by bricks last Wednesday night. A delegation called on Dr. and Mrs. Jones the following day to ask them to remove their son from the school.

Dr. Jones refused and referred the committee of three women and two men to the Anne Arundel County Board of Education.

The office where windows were smashed is occupied by Ruby Downs, a real estate agent who owns the building in which the classroom and the office are located.

Downs said he had been warned by an unidentified telephone caller that he would "be sorry... if you don't get that black boy out of your building."

Downs, a retired Washington police sergeant, said he rented the building to the school board in October 1956 when there were no Negroes enrolled. He said a rent agreement made at that time left him no choice but to lease the building as a classroom again this year.

The window-smashing incident was the first anti-integration incident in the county since the school board began a program of gradual desegregation last fall, beginning at the first grade level.

But the Jones boy was the first Negro to enroll at a school in what is considered the conservative southern section of the county.

Dr. Jones said about 12 cars passed back and forth in front of his home and the school about 9 o'clock last night. County Police Chief Wilbur C. Wade said 30 extra policemen and 11 state troopers joined officers of the nearby Edgewater substation to patrol the area from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m. Wade said all was quiet then.

The police chief said the traffic on heavily traveled Maryland 256 may have been "just a coincidence". He said his men are still investigating the window-smashing incident.

Dr. Jones said he has not decided if he will send his son to the nearest Negro school, the Lulu Scott Elementary at Shadyside.

He said he and his wife wanted Harry to attend the Deale school primarily as a matter of convenience. The Negro physician, who came here from Washington in 1952, said he is not a member of the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People and was not trying to provide an "opening wedge" for integration here.

The Jones boy was registered at the school last spring and was enrolled without incident when classes opened.

Dr. Jones said he reached the decision to withdraw Harry from the school "independently" and not from fear of possible detriment to himself, but to others who had supported him.

"I have too much respect for them to jeopardize their standing in the community and to create a problem for them," he said.

Dr. Jones said about 60 per cent of his patients are white, and he expressed the hope he'll "be able to serve the community in the future in the same capacity as I have done in the past."

He said he believes he had the support of the "better thinking" people of Deale in sending his son to the integrated school.

Miss Ryan was a young girl when she came to Washington. A cum laude graduate of George Washington University, she worked for the French High Commission here during World War I and for the Smithsonian Institution.

Fugitive Faces Trial In Georgia

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—Allen Clayton West, 28-year-old fugitive from a Florida prison camp, was ordered returned to Georgia today to face federal charges of transporting a stolen car across state lines.

West, captured in Baltimore by FBI agents after the July 15 escape, admitted he and another inmate had held a deputy warden at gunpoint and fled the prison in the warden's car.

But he denied at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Ernest Volkart that he had transported the car across the Florida line into Georgia.

West agreed with FBI testimony that he had held up a Georgia filling station, engaged in two running gun battles with police there and had stolen another car and committed a second robbery in Greensboro, N. C.

Leo Caron, now of New York City but formerly deputy warden at the prison camp near Bronson, Fla., testified West and another

Baroness' Ring Stolen At Hotel

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—A 150-year-old diamond ring, family heirloom of an attaché at the Netherlands embassy, was stolen yesterday at a Baltimore hotel.

Baroness Alwine de Vos van Steenwijk said the ring was stolen while she was in Baltimore to address a woman's club at the Emerson Hotel.

She said it disappeared after she took it off to wash her hands in a restroom.

The ring has nine diamonds set in the shape of a cross, surrounded by diamond chips. It is mounted on a gold band with a platinum setting.

"Baby" Rocket To Power Third Stage Of Satellite Vehicle

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—The third stage of the Vanguard earth satellite launching vehicle will be powered by a small rocket only about five feet long and 18 inches in diameter, a Martin Company engineer said today.

Joseph E. Burghardt, assistant project engineer for the satellite launching engineer, described rocket to a national meeting of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

He said most of the details of the third-stage rocket are being withheld for security reasons.

Burghardt said the rocket has a nominal burning time of about 30 seconds and develops an average thrust of about 2,350 pounds. The satellite as it streaks up from it will contribute about one-half the earth to explore still-locked of the final horizontal velocity to secrets of the universe.

Haitian Voters Hope To Elect New President Sunday

By BERNARD DIEDERICH
PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Sept. 18 (AP)—Citizens of this Caribbean Negro republic, frustrated in two attempts this year to hold a presidential election, hope to choose a new chief executive at the polls Sunday.

between factions of feuding candidates. The scheduled voting in both cases had to be postponed. If the balloting Sunday goes off successfully it will be the first election in the 153 years of Haitian independence held under universal suffrage. A tough three-man military junta headed by Brig. Gen. Antonio Kebreau is running the country until the voters select a successor to strong-man president Paul E. Magloire, who was ousted and exiled last December when he attempted to prolong his stay in office unconstitutionally. From January through June Haiti was in political turmoil which saw the overthrow of five successive provisional governments and brought the nation to the brink of civil war. On June 14, Kebreau, the chief of staff of the Haitian army, seized power in a smooth coup. He shipped to New York the darling of the Port au Prince masses, presidential candidate Daniel Fignole, who had made himself provisional president, and re-established civil order. Kebreau, a soft-spoken, 47-year-old career officer who is a graduate of the U.S. Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., is not a presidential candidate. The three major contenders for the presidency—agronomist Louis Dejoie, physician Dr. Francois

Duvalier, and lawyer - financier Clement Jumelle—have accepted the provisions of an electoral decree promulgated by the Kebreau regime to govern the balloting. Fignole, by virtue of his exile, will not be running. The race appears now to be between Dejoie and Duvalier. But Jumelle is thought to be coming up fast as a result of the elimination of Fignole. The electoral decree imposes on candidates limitation of broadcast political speeches and prohibition of defamatory, insulting or subversive utterances. Texas is less than one-half the size of Alaska.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Pleasant Grove Church voted on project idea suggestions at the meeting recently at the church. The project receiving the most votes was for refurnishing the sanctuary choir loft, pulpit and other furniture.

The group has decided to join with other organizations in this project. A committee composed of Rev. Louis Emerick, Mrs. Martin Gordon and Mrs. Harry Wilson was appointed to order the furnishings.

Plans also were made to make apple butter during November and everyone is asked to help in the redecorating work at the parsonage on September 25 and 26. Routine reports were given by the various secretaries. A bake sale is being planned by the society. A letter of appreciation was received from Rev. and Mrs. Emerick in acknowledgement of the covered dish supper and bedspread presented to them in honor of their return for another term.

The devotional program, in charge of Mrs. Harry P. Northcraft, was opened with the hymn, "There's Wideness in God's Mercy." Her topic was "The March of Missions of the Methodist Church." The Scripture was read by Mrs. Harry Raines. A discussion on the question, "How Large is Your World?" followed with each member participating. Mrs. Adolph Norris gave a reading on the life of a missionary in China. After group singing of "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," Rev. Emerick offered prayer. Mrs. Norris offered the prayer preceding the business session.

After rolling bandages for the leper colony refreshments were served by Mrs. Roy Smith and Mrs. Edgar Rephann, hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. Stella Ryan was a guest. Others attending were Mrs. Samuel Clark, Mrs. Irvin Elliott, Mrs. Emerick, Mrs. Leslie Hinkle, Mrs. Jesse Knight, Mrs. James Michael, Mrs. Ira Robinette, Mrs. Melvin Robinette, Mrs. Donald Ware, Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mrs. Harold Fisher and Mrs. Lemuel Yokum.

A rummage sale will be held by the Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid today in the Youth building, beginning at 5 p. m.

Goal Of $29,000 Set For Keyser CUF Drive

The growing enthusiasm for the County United Fund was carried into Keyser Tuesday by Lewis J. Ort, CUF campaign chairman, who told a meeting of the Keyser Golden Gifts Division at the Upper Potomac Shrine Club that "the County United Fund is not a duty, but an opportunity."

He said that the CUF is "no re-hash of a Community Chest, which is an organization of agencies, but it is something entirely new — an organization of givers."

Ort pointed out that CUF will make a better community by enabling people to work together and will deliver more dollars to the people who need them than any other plan.

Earl K. Hess, Keyser campaign chairman, presided over the meeting. A goal of $29,000 has been set for the Keyser area, with $15,000 of that amount being allocated to the Golden Gifts Division headed by Warner Lowry and Charles Vossler. The overall goal of CUF is $250,000.

Dr. E. E. Church, president of Potomac State College, reviewed the organization of CUF for Mineral County. He said that Keyser citizens had studied the value of a single solicitation for several months and added, "Crystallization of sentiment for the movement led to the election of officers and the selection of committees, because it was felt that the United Fund enables the community to do the things it is doing in a better way."

William Walsh, Cumberland attorney attended the meeting, as did the following residents of the Keyser and Piedmont areas:

David Nuzum, Don Heare, John Hovland, Harland Ridder, Joseph Blundon, Dr. Thomas Bess, Joseph Patchet, Arthur Tenny, Floyd Boor, P. I. Homan, James Fuller, Roy Davidson, Carl Ludwick, Harry Oss, Wilbur Cather, Raymond Hudson, John Barger, Lee Temple, George Petras, Vincent Panico, Ernest Moulard, Richard Romig, and Raymond Stafford.

The Alexander Hotel will be headquarters for the convention, and the principal speaker at a dinner Friday evening will be Mayor Frank Durnell of Newark, Del.

The letters REA stand for Rural Electrification administration, an agency of the United States government.

Burglars Who Asked Police Aid Sentenced

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP) — Three-year prison terms were imposed today on two men the State said asked police help in finding tools they themselves had stolen.

Police said the tools were taken during the burglary of a filling station.

The two men—both drunk—dropped the tools on Herbert Street and then complained to a cop on a corner that someone had stolen them from them. Assistant State's Atty. James W. Murphy told the court.

Judge S. Ralph Warnken sentenced Leroy Schneider, 54, to the House of Correction after Schneider said he was troubled with defective breathing and wanted country air. Francis X. Furlong, 43, of Randallstown was sent to the same institution. He said excitement at the penitentiary would bother his ulcers.

Four Persons Are Hurt In Two-Car Crash

Four persons were hospitalized as a result of a two-car collision on U. S. Route 40 near the intersection of Winchester Road, shortly before midnight Tuesday.

Admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital was Daisy Beatrice Lynch, 28, of RD 5, whom attaches said suffered a possible fracture of the left leg and lacerations of the head.

In Memorial Hospital are Mrs. Helen Miller, 38, wife of Harold Leo Miller, 39, of RD 1; their ten-year-old daughter, Wanda Y. Miller, and eight-year-old son, Marlin L. Miller.

Mrs. Miller suffered a lacerated scalp and shock; her daughter sustained a cut lip, contusion of the right leg and a minor head injury, and the son had lacerations of the head and left knee.

Tfc. D. R. Wade, who investigated, said the Lynch woman was driving east on Route 40 when Miller drove onto the highway from a restaurant and into the path of her car. The Miller vehicle was struck on the left side, Tfc. Wade said.

No charges have been preferred pending the outcome of the injuries. None of the injured are reported serious.

The giggle-and-titter habit can be replaced by beautiful laughter that is welcome to all ears!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

The Giggle Habit

The schoolgirl giggle is always annoying, but beyond the age of sixteen, it is difficult to excuse. It transmits more than an unpleasant sound—it communicates to others a lack of poise and embarrassment.

Self-Awareness

Become conscious of your laughing sounds. By listening to them with awareness, your ear will become sensitive enough to distinguish your personal idiosyncrasies. When you hear tones that are deep and warm, well and good!

But if high-pitched, rapid "tee-hee" or nervous, inane, self-conscious sounds are your expressions of mirth, it's time to do some serious listening to the laughter of others.

Pleasing Laughter

On the whole, most of the sounds we make are imitative. If you wish to eliminate a habitual giggle all you need do is listen to the laughter of the women who charm with theirs. Note that the range is from low to medium but never high or shrill. Then imitate in private the laughter you most enjoy hearing.

You think you can't laugh aloud in private? Ah, but you can. And silly as the practice may sound, it will work for you as it has for actresses and public speakers.

Such practice is a regular part of professional speech training.

Representatives of business and industry in the Tri-Towns met last night in Piedmont to hear a discussion on the aim and purpose of County United Fund. Left to right are Mayor Okey E. Michael of Westernport, Raymond C. Hudson of Piedmont, general chairman of the UF chapter of the Tri-Towns, and A. Trago Brust, who represented the Luke Mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, largest industry in that area.

Aim Of United Fund Cited At Tri-Towns

The purpose and aim of the County United Fund were outlined at a meeting of representatives of the Tri-Towns section last night at a dinner meeting at St. Ann's Hotel in Piedmont.

There were 16 people representing businesses and organizations at the meeting, invited by Raymond C. Hudson, general chairman of the CUF in the Tri-Towns region.

Thomas Miller of Harrisburg, Pa., advisor to the CUF organization, presented a brief history of the founding of the one-drive idea, explaining that it was started in Detroit following a study financed by the Ford Foundation.

In his talk, Mr. Miller pointed out that during 1956 there had been 15 fund appeals by separate organizations, and 13 of these failed to meet their goals. The reason for the failure of the drives was not that individuals did not want to give, but instead should be attributed to the multiplicity of appeals—which he termed a "scourge."

The tremendous expense of conducting the individual campaigns was a waste of effort, he stated, which could be expended in one all-out effort for the County United Fund which should do all but guarantee that the Tri-Towns drive will be successful.

Participation in the CUF will also guarantee a more equitable distribution of the total collected—the CUF quota is $250,000, he pointed out—since the amount needed by the participating organizations is decided on by residents of the communities in which they are located, Mr. Miller explained.

Management, labor and industry throughout the area have indicated their approval of the County United Fund idea, Miller stated, and it is only through this cooperation that the drive can be successful. There will be no house-to-house solicitation in the campaign, since all individuals will be contacted through their work, business affiliations or professional connections.

Mr. Miller also stressed that the "giving" to the CUF campaign is purely voluntary and will be pledged through deduction

County Receives PPG Access Road

Maintenance of the new access road to the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company plant from State Route 51 is now completely the responsibility of the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners.

A copy of a letter from G. Bates Chaires, district engineer for the State Roads Commission, to the George F. Hazelwood Company, received by the county commissioners Tuesday outlined the situation.

The letter explained that the seeding and mulching and solid seeding now have been accepted by the SRC as well as the bridge which means that the Hazelwood constructed project has been accepted in its entirety. It is now turned over to the county commissioners.

VFW Members Hear Talks On Civil Defense

Henry Hart Post 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Post Commander Jack Dehl, is lending its support to the local and area Civil Defense program and is helping urge expansion with the recruitment of more volunteers.

At a meeting at the post home Tuesday night, William G. Barger spoke to members of the post and its auxiliary, outlining the CD program, after which he introduced personnel of the CD medical staff. He said that plans must be completed here to assist the people of Maryland in event of an emergency.

Thomas K. Whalley, assistant chief administrator and adjutant, quartermaster officer; Robert Thwaites, medical plans and training officer; Murray Allen, medical supply officer; Miss Christine Williams, supervisor of nurses; Miss Virginia Lee Beall, staff medical secretary; and Arnold Robinson, chief administrative officer of Casualty Station No. 1, were among those present.

Raymond Whitehair, chief administrative officer of the medical staff, spoke and outlined the necessity for this particular kind of a CD organization, and the need for more personnel and additional casualty stations.

He also emphasized the need for communications personnel including radio, telephone and telegraph operators; welfare service workers; rescue service corpsmen and women; fire and police auxiliary units; wardens and transportation crews, in addition to the medical staff.

Mr. Thwaites spoke on first aid training courses conducted with cooperation of the Red Cross and said soon after October 1, dates for a series of courses in the area will be announced. There are eight qualified instructors here and the new first aid course, complete with new textbook, will cover ten hours instead of the former 16.

PPG Building Is Featured In Firm's Magazine

The new office building of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company at North Branch is featured in the September issue of PPG People, the monthly publication of the company.

The article on the local office and many of its employees is featured on four pages of the magazine and gives an account of many products of the company used in the construction.

The two-story building contains 31 rooms and is completely air conditioned. A large training room on the second floor is capable of seating 200 persons. A lunch room for office staffers also is located on the second floor.

The employment and payroll offices as well as the plant hospital are on the first floor. Adjacent to the first aid room is a locker equipped with showers.

Land Week Plans To Be Completed

Plans for the observance of Maryland Land Week in Allegany County the week of October 6 will be completed at a meeting at 1:30 p. m. today in the office of County Agent Joseph M. Steger at the Court House.

Floyd Buser is general chairman for the observance. At a preliminary meeting September 9 it was decided to have a tour and program at the Union Grove camp ground and to arrange window displays in downtown stores. "Better Understanding Between Town and Country People" has been selected as the theme for Land Week in Allegany County.

Phone Books

persons who deliver the new ones and subscribers who are not at home at the time of delivery are requested to dispose of the old directories because of the numerous number changes.

The first subscriber listed in the new edition was a guest yesterday of Mr. Garner at the local office. He is John L. Aaron of 475 Goethe Street who has had the number one spot since January of this year.

Mr. Aaron said yesterday he had been a subscriber on an on-and-off basis from 1913 to 1935 and was listed first that year.

Since 1935 he has had continuous phone service and had four different phone numbers and three different addresses.

Mr. Aaron is a retired bridge and building inspector for the Western Maryland Railway and is presently employed as an inspector for the flood control by the Army Corps of Engineers. He has resided at the Goethe Street address since 1949.

Although first in the Cumberland and Allegany County directory, Mr. Aaron would not have this distinction in other cities. For instance, he would be listed 12th in Baltimore, 71st in Manhattan, and 89th in Chicago.

The last subscriber listed in the directory is Tony Zumpano of 35 American Avenue, Frostburg.

As in most directories in the United States, the name Smith leads all other subscribers in the local directory with 267 listings.

Second place goes to the name Miller with 192 and third place to Wilson with 158. Other names with many listings are Twigg, 126; Johnson, 86; Rice, 72. The name Jones, which is a leading subscriber in many cities is listed only 56 times in the local directory.

Towns, in addition to Cumberland, which are listed in the directory are Frostburg, Flintstone, Lonaconing, Ridgeley, Mt. Savage, McCoole, Westernport, Kifer, State Line and Wellersburg, Pa.

Weight of a bale of cotton is 500 pounds in the United States, but this weight varies in other countries.

Williamsport Supports Plan For C&O Canal Park

Williamsport officially joined Hancock as forming the Washington County support for a C&O Canal park plan.

Tuesday the Mayor and Council of that Potomac River town held a special meeting to support the retention of the C&O Canal in federal hands.

The council also approved the development of the canal property into a national park as has been proposed in a bill passed by the U. S. Senate at the session just ended.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. J. Glenn Beall of Frostburg, reached the House of Representatives too late to be acted upon without hearings.

At a meeting Monday night in Hagerstown Rep. DeWitt Hyde of this Sixth District told opponents of the park plan that full and complete hearings will be held because the issue is so controversial.

Williamsport council said it will inform Sen. Beall and Rep. Hyde of its action.

The council added that it is joining the Odd Fellows, Red Men's lodges and the American Legion post in supporting the canal park plan.

In the past Hancock organizations have gone on record as supporting the bill.

The main opposition to the old parkway plan and the new park proposal has come from the Hagerstown Chamber of Commerce and sportsmen's clubs that lease ground along the Potomac from the federal government. The Chamber of Commerce wants the river free for industrial sites, and the sportsmen want it left for a game refuge.

Police Release Boys To Parents

Two boys who have admitted being involved in a series of breaking and enterings and burglaries here have been released in the custody of their parents pending completion of an investigation.

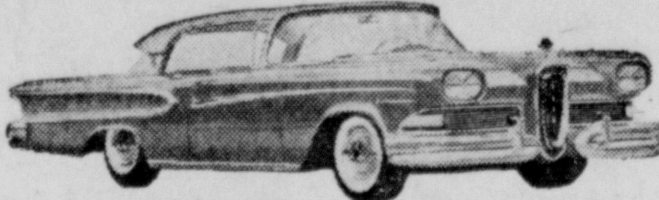

The boys, one 14 and the other 15, were taken into custody by police here Tuesday morning for breaking into the Super 40 Drive-In Theater. They were questioned by State Police yesterday at the detention quarters of the Allegany County Infirmary where they were held until released to their parents.

State Police said the two boys broke into the Super 40 as well as the Starlite Drive-In and that they admitted to city police that they broke into a number of local places.

Renaissance Of Raccoon Rage?

To read some of the reports about the raccoon coat craze coming back again, one might conclude the main source of supply nowadays is the old trunk in the attic. Perhaps there are some coats of this fur dating from the 1920s and still fit to wear—but certainly not enough to meet widespread demand.

If this craze really gets rolling again there will be much new fur going into coats, and most of it will come from raccoons now inhabiting the woods and swamps of America.

After the Joe College Look of a generation ago, on and off the campus, American use of raccoon fur took a nosedive. So did prices paid the trappers. The Davy Crockett fur cap boom made inroads on the stockpile of old coats, and even put some life into raccoon trapping—if only because every Crockett headpiece had to have a coontail hanging down the back.

There was another use for the tails. Remember the tails flying from the antenna rods of autos and the handlebars of bikes? The wonder is how so many boys got hold of coontails without driving up the price of raw raccoon skins beyond their reach.

A buyer of raw furs from many eastern states says the main market (such as it is) for raccoon hides has been Europe in recent years. As for the fur itself, he says it is one of the best wearing of all kinds. Sheds rain, snow, even mud. Very warm to wear.

The question remains whether in a trend of shorter, lighter-weight fur coats and wraps, over the years, there is any place but a blustery football stadium for a coonskin coat.

Middle East Diversion

It is difficult to read a man's mind but it is becoming increasingly evident that Khrushchev employed the Middle East as a diversion to make it easier for him to achieve his bloodless purge within the Soviet world, in Russia, Hungary, Poland and East Germany. Within Russia, his success seems to have been complete. In Hungary he put down a revolt with a brutality rarely witnessed and the surprising fact is that world resentment has not been as great as it should have been. In Poland, he was not altogether successful. The East German situation remains liquid. His peace with Tito is tenuous.

Meanwhile, he has been able to rid himself of Molotov who opposed his Arabic policy, of Malenkov who opposed his anti-Semitism, of Shepilov who had changed his mind about the Middle East, and of Kaganovich, the last Jew in any position of power in Russia.

The Middle East adventure includes prospects of a universal war. This Khrushchev has apparently been willing to risk, but nobody can know for sure, on the assumption that the fighting would begin as a local, limited war, first involving Syria and Egypt, as partners against Jordan, then against Israel, and bringing in Turkey and Iraq before Soviet Russia needs to be committed. It is doubtful whether Soviet Russia would regard it as necessary to act unless the United States stepped in or Turkey actually took Syria.

It is to be presumed that Khrushchev would prefer this not to be the universal war, but he needs a cover for his activities in the Soviet world, which under Stalin was forming into a universal state, but is actually now seething on the periphery.

Stalin had developed a bureaucracy of technicians, factory managers and such, watched by his secret police, who carried through his program. Khrushchev found that in 1956, the real opposition to him came from the technocrats led by Malenkov and Kaganovich, and they nearly got rid of him.

Khrushchev is destroying the power of the technocrats, is elevating the party secretaries, and by a process of decentralization is breaking up the Moscow bureaucracy. Using the war scare, Khrushchev is following the classical lines of the rise to power of a dictator.

As long as British interest was paramount in the Middle East, Russia limited its activities to propaganda and infiltration. Two years ago, Khrushchev decided that British influence was gone and that it could not be revived. Also, following Leninist thinking, Khrushchev decided that in the competition between British and American capitalism, it would be the United States that would eventually push the British out of the Middle East, which more or less happened during the Suez crisis.

Every people boasts that it descends from the beginning of time and the apologists for each country find an historical basis for everlasting existence. Arab nationalism, in its current manifestations, is something very new and different from anything in the previous history of this people. Soviet Russia, however, had no difficult task in stimulating this nationalism for its fire was already burning, as it has throughout Asia since the beginning of this century.

Russia's principal means for establishing friendship has been the supply of arms to these countries. The politicians in each country were able to boast that there were no political strings tied to these various arms deals. This is probably true as in each of these countries, a Communist Party exists, fellow-traveller groups exist, and a large group of instructors and experts accompany each deal, many of whom are political agents, especially trained in the art of propaganda and mass articulation.

Much trouble could have been avoided if after the Sinai campaign, this country had not rescued Nasser. But to the surprise of all the world, the United States adopted a common attitude with Soviet Russia in the United Nations and Nasser was rescued. This, from an American standpoint, was a strange policy and no explanation thus far offered for it has been convincing. It came close to destroying NATO and the Baghdad Alliance.

The Russians supplied arms not only to Egypt but to Syria and Yemen. Syria is now completely dominated by Russia, even more so than Egypt. It is through Syria that the pipelines go which carry the oil from Iraq and other countries to the Mediterranean. Therefore, the inclusion of Syria in the Soviet Universal State imperils the whole of Western Europe.

Warsaw, Gomulka, And Polish Co-Existence

By Joseph Alsop

WARSAW.

The modern world can show no stranger city than this Warsaw, which is at once the capital and the epitome of the new Poland of Wladyslaw Gomulka.

Towering into the pale sky, as though still seeking to dominate the city, there is Joseph Stalin's gift, the Palace of Culture and Rest — every proportion wrong, every ornament false, every consideration of usefulness and beauty sacrificed to heavy, empty show. But what is meant to be shown, one wonders, by this macabre white skyscraper like a giant wedding cake made for a marriage feast in hell?

And then one realizes it was meant to show the nature of Stalinism, with its anti-human system of priorities, its total sacrifice of all human values to the state's crude power.

The war's grim ruins still three quarters surround the palace of Culture and Rest in its wide, bleak park. But further, over towards the blue ribbon of the Vistula, there is the new Warsaw that Wladyslaw Gomulka began to build before his fall from power in 1948. It is old Warsaw, ideally reconstructed—the palaces of Poland's princesses, the richly ornamented burgher houses of the square in the old town, all carefully rebuilt from bomb-blasted shards at vast expense.

The plainest housing is still so desperately short here that the key money for a poor flat can come to ten times an ordinary worker's monthly wage. But so far as I could discover, no Pole resents the outlay on this remarkable recreation of Warsaw's ancient beauty, full of the elegance and rationality and high pride of the Polish renaissance. Somewhere in this curious contrast between Joseph Stalin's and Wladyslaw Gomulka's contributions to the Warsaw scene, there perhaps lies the hidden clue to Warsaw in 1957. It is a city looking both ways, towards the West whence came the renaissance and towards the East whence came Stalin's hideous skyscraper; and it is governed by a Communist Party looking both ways too.

It is not a comfortable city, by any means. Life has grown better since October, but only a little better. For the average worker's family, it is still a cruelly hard struggle to keep enough food on the table; and the final failure of an old pair of shoes is a major catastrophe. Even for the foreigners and the Poles who have some money to spend, there is no comfort, much less luxury. There is only a kind of frantic gaiety in the strange, shabby restaurants and clubs of the various intellectual organizations where those with a little cash in their pockets gather to enjoy themselves.

Despite the gaiety, it is not a happy city, either. Someone has written that the leaders of the revolutions that swept Europe in 1848 had no program—they had only an innocent belief that all problems would be automatically solved by the downfall of the tyrants. That was the spirit of the vast majority of Poles last October.

Their regained personal freedom is so sweet to every one of them that you can still almost see them tasting it, as you can

Seems our portfolians don't speak the same gestures as those Asiatic satraps. Syria went down the drain and now Laos picked up its marbles.

It's too early to validate the Dulles plan and too late for the Marshall. Bread cast upon the waters must be caulked with butter.

England hasn't done any better than a woodpecker in the petri-

First time we ever saw the English coat-of-arms embossed on a picnic plate.

England and France did stack up a shrill squawk. But they quit when the U. S. didn't sing bass.

Personality Factors In Nervous Breakdowns

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

You are headed for a nervous breakdown unless you change your way of living," said the physician. This advice was disturbing but not surprising to Mr. Jones, who had reasons for going off his rocker. It was the old story of the energetic business man trying to establish a new firm in a highly competitive field.

He was making enough to take care of current expenses but too little for his ambitious wife. Financially he was at a standstill and the situation was becoming too difficult to bear. The psychiatrist realized that Mr. Jones was at the end of his rope and ready to snap.

The cause of mental illness varies but a common denominator is the failure to adapt to stress. Some attempt to solve the problem in various ways until the solution is found. Others are overwhelmed by conflicts and our Mr. Jones fell into this category. He had to be convinced that no business is worth loss of health and that the stage had been reached where adjustments were almost impossible.

The development of a nervous breakdown is the last attempt by the sufferer to reduce anxiety or to maintain his integrity. He escapes into a world of his own which provides a perfect excuse for not succeeding. Others become so depressed, they commit suicide.

Some men might have been able to take the anxieties and frustrations that faced Mr. Jones. But, because of his personality, he fell by the wayside.

The childhood environment is important in the way we react. Those who grow up with a sense of inferiority, insecurity, and lack of love are handicapped because the ensuing emotional kinks make it difficult to handle stress. The physician who knows the background of his patient often can stop the snowballing effect of mental struggles and help the individual toward a happier outlook before it is too late.

WHIRLING ON RECLINING

J. L. writes: As soon as my head hits the pillow, the bed goes round and round for a few minutes. I'm never dizzy during the day. Can you tell me why this happens?

Changes in circulation or a disturbance in the balancing mechanism in the middle ear may be responsible. Dizziness is more common on arising than on lying down, hence a complete checkup would be necessary to determine the cause in your case. Meanwhile, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on dizziness.

U. S. Apt To Find Syria A Soviet Outpost While Bizri Is In Power

By Drew Pearson

(Drew Pearson, continuing his reports from the vital Near East, today interviews Syria's pro-Communist strong man, General Bizri).

DAMASCUS — (Via Radio) — I have just interviewed the top pro-Communist and military strong man of Syria, Gen. Alif Bizri, Chief of Staff of the Syrian Army. He was extremely frank and not unfriendly, but was extremely discouraging as far as Syria's future relations with America are concerned.

In brief, the United States is likely to find Syria a model Soviet outpost in the Arab world as long as General Bizri remains in power.

Getting to see Bizri was not difficult. But getting to Syria was difficult. In New York, the Syrian Consul flatly refused to give me a visa. In Washington, the Syrian Embassy flatly refused to discuss the matter. Finally, I hired a taxi in Lebanon and drove one hour to the Syrian border without a visa on the chance that I could talk my way across the border. It worked.

The border was a madhouse of travelers from Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia, going and coming. The harassed border authorities gave me a visa and I continued across the desert past camels and Cadillacs, donkeys of the kind that carried Joseph and Mary, buses crammed with Arab travelers going to Damascus to see its International Fair.

Finally, out of the desert emerged trees and a river tumbling from the mountains—an oasis on which was built the oldest city in the world to continue functioning from ancient days until now.

"U. S. Problem"

I located General Bizri in the army headquarters built by the French when Syria was under French mandate. Bizri himself, a graduate of the French-Syrian Military Academy, came to the United States in 1951 for the United Nations' mediation on the Israeli-Syrian boundary. He is slender and grim-faced, with a narrow, well-trimmed mustache. He once presided over a military court trying alleged traitors and there were times during our interview today when he looked as if I were on trial, too.

"What has happened to the once friendly relations of the United States and Syria?" I opened the interview.

"Improvement of those relations is entirely a problem for the United States," he replied. "Syria did nothing to justify this American attack. All Syria wants is independence. When I read of your fight for independence I get encouraged and feel Americans who believe in independence should be of good heart toward us and happy when they see us following their example. This is all Syria has done. This is what caused the campaign against Syria."

"Aren't you afraid you'll lose your independence when you take arms from Russia?" I asked. "Why didn't you sell us arms?" he parried.

"The State Department informs me it offered arms to Syria," I said.

"The State Department forgot to tell you," General Bizri replied. "that it attached political conditions to those arms which would have ended our independence."

Won't Sell Independence

"Aren't you afraid of losing your independence when you receive money from Russia to build roads, airports and harbors?" I asked.

"We don't sell our independence for a harbor," Syria's Chief of Staff replied. "If we find the Soviet tries to infringe on our sovereignty, we will stop every project."

"Assuming we have made some mistakes," I asked, "how can we improve relations from here on?"

"The mistakes of the United States are not theory, but fact," the General shot back. "The first step the United States can take is not to give ear to such hysterical persons as Charles Malik." He referred to the Foreign Minister of Lebanon, a Christian Arab and staunch friend of the U. S.

"You can also not consult with such smugglers who fled their countries as Sherif Nasser of Jordan," he added, referring to the uncle of King Hussein now with ex-President of Syria Shishkeky. "The best trade they deal with leads to bad roads. I am ashamed when I stretch my hand to shake hands with Americans who do business with these smugglers. Many Americans on our Embassy staff did business with them," the General continued. "Those whom we asked to leave our country were the most active. They had contracts with civilians and with military officers plotting against our regime and to kill me. What the Americans did not know was that these officers immediately reported to me."

I asked Bizri who these alleged American plotters were and he named Col. Robert Malloy, military attaché; Vice Consul Francis Jetton and second secretary Howard Stone. Later the American Embassy vigorously denied the charges.

"These Americans," Bizri continued, "paid money to Syrian officers to overthrow our regime. We have this money—about 100,000 Syrian pounds—which we will show at the trial. Charges will be officially published in a few days and the trial will follow. Later, you in America pay taxes and this is what your tax money is used for."

U. S. Papers "Don't Print Facts"

"Your newspapers learn the facts correctly but don't print these facts. They print completely the opposite of what they learn. This is unfortunate, but it doesn't deter us from completing our program and defending our country. We hope that honorable people in America will come here and learn the truth." We would like to establish relations with honorable Americans."

General Bizri smiled at the start of our interview. He did not smile toward the end. He spoke like a man who, though wrong, fervently believes he is right and will follow his policy to the bitter end.

The United States, I concluded, will have increasing trouble with Syria under General Bizri.

Horror In Hungary

By Bob Considine

NEW YORK — (INS) — The United Nations has finally done something about the villainy of the Kremlin in suppressing Hungarian freedom by means of the Red Army. U. N. has said "Tsk tsk."

The "American Friends of the Captive Nations" will not let the matter die there. It has issued a report and flung it on U. N.'s doorstep in the hope—fornal as it is—that the world organization can do more than cluck its tongue at one of the most outrageous crimes of this century.

There can be little help from Hungarians in Hungary itself at this time. "Anyone making a statement to the effect that he dislikes the present order and hopes for a change is guilty of incitation," reads the law under which these people are held captive.

Freedom can hardly emerge from religion, either.

The AFN reports: "Religious freedom, an aspect of freedom of expression, cannot be said to exist where all religious organizations with the exception of the churches themselves were disbanded, the formation of new religious organizations prohibited, all church schools nationalized, religious orders dissolved, the head of the Hungarian Roman Catholic Church imprisoned on trumped-up charges and forced confessions, and all important Protestant and Jewish religious and lay leaders either imprisoned or held in forced labor camps."

Hungary is being held in check by a full Red Army, divided into three army corps consisting of eight armored divisions. There are, in all, about 100,000 Russian troops on hand, abetted by perhaps 20,000 Hungarian mercenaries, Soviet civilian advisers, technicians, and secret police.

It all works out to one heavily armed Russian or Russian mercenary for every 100 Hungarians, or about the customary proportion of prison guards to prison inmates. The Hungarian frontier bordering on Austria and Yugoslavia is policed so deep that about one third of the nation's 93,000 square kilometers is under systematic patrol.

The independent group states flatly that since the U. N. experts retired to write up their reproach, the terror in Hungary has grown enormously. "Hundreds of arrests have been announced and the most sweeping measures are being taken against professionals and intellectuals whose loyalty is suspect," the report reads.

Scroffing at puppet Kadar's statistics on the number of Hungarians executed in the wake of the historic break for freedom, the group gives these figures "by Hungarians who have made an assiduous study of the national and local Hungarian press and who receive regular information from contacts in the country:

"Executed, 2,000; imprisoned, 20,000; forced labor camps, 15,000; internal deportation, 10,000; deported to Soviet Union, 12,000 (mostly youth). From inside the country comes this terrible picture of legal terror at work:

"In Hungary no one can be certain he won't be considered a counter-revolutionary. Hitler said that he alone decides who is a Jew and who is not; Kadar has assumed the same arbitrary power."

"If he ad his clique dislike anyone for any reason, they simply brand him a 'counter-revolutionary'. Even the most innocent person whose participation in the revolution was limited to watching from behind drawn blinds with a nightcap on his head, cannot be sure that he won't be branded a saboteur or an imperialist agent."

Last April a "Peoples' Chamber of the Supreme Court of Justice" was established in Hungary to clear the crowded calendars. This court acts "if the chief public prosecutor or the President of the Supreme Court is dissatisfied with the verdict rendered by a lower court." The accused is forbidden to appeal and death sentences are carried out within two hours. Our Mr. Jimmy Hoffa, as well as others, will win to learn that a decree law passed on June 13 states that death sentences may be imposed in cases involving strikers or instigation to strike.

Ladies' Choice: A Fishing Camp

Woman's work is never done around a fishing camp. Sally and Doris are currently engaged in putting in additional docking facilities for small boats.

Newcomers at the Dorsal fishing camp on the St. Lucie river in Florida often are taken aback on discovering that the proprietors are women doing work traditionally belonging to men.

One of them, Doris Kelliker, went to Florida from Newton, Mass., about four years ago and there met Sally Johns of Charlottesville, Va. They discovered they both loved the outdoors, and decided then and there to start a camp.

Now Doris takes care of the camp as general manager, while Sally does nearly all of the guide work. Dressed in jeans and plaid shirt, she knows every stump, submerged log and fishing hole on the St. Lucie. She tells guests just where and how to cast their lines. She has invented several flies and plugs that are known in the trade.

When the gals first started the camp, they hired a bulldozer to clear the land and a carpenter to build some cabins. But they then took over the rest of the work. They jetted down pilings, built ditches and put things in order generally. They continue to do all the labor around the place themselves.

GUIDING HAND. While Sally Johns steers the boat, her guest casts at a good fishing spot in the St. Lucie river. Sally is the camp guide. Like her partner, Doris Kelliker, she is a licensed small boat operator.

Besides being an expert angler, Doris is adept at making all kinds of casting bait. She's tying a lure known as the "Dorsal Dizzo."

Sally hands her guest a fly which she thinks is just right for the black bass at this spot.

The gals keep their boats in perfect condition. Sally uses the sandpaper, while Doris paints.

They do all the manual labor, from repairing motors to keeping the cabins clean.

Baldi Stable Horses Arrive At Fairgo Oval From Ohio

Six Runners Campaigned At Randall

Rogan Is Trainer; Hemphill To Send String Of 10 Here

With the opening of the Cumberland Fair Association's 12 day racing meet only five days off, the advance guard of horses from the bigger stables put in its appearance yesterday when Trainer August Rogan arrived at the local half miler with six well-conditioned thoroughbreds.

This group represented the stable owned by Philippo Baldi, Washington, D. C., real estate broker and sportsman. The Baldi string came here from Randall Park's 44-day session in Ohio which ended September 7. This stable also campaigned at the Thistle Down track, North Randall, Ohio, during the 44 days, ending July 17.

Stable Has Long Shots

Victory King, Lady Incline, Buzz Again, Miss Corky, Jimmie C., and Knight Aumar comprise the sextet of Baldi breadwinners. Victory King returned a whopping $75.80 to win at Randall while Lady Incline rewarded backers with $144 across the board in finishing first at the Thistle Down meeting.

Mr. Baldi owns a total of 15 thoroughbreds, including Dinner Winner, Count Aumar and Mr. F. B., which have been vanned to the Atlantic City meet.

Mike Hackett's Triflin Neibor, 11-year-old grandson of Man 'O' War, which has raced here before, arrived yesterday. Mr. Hackett, whose home is at Bowie, Md., has owned Triflin Neibor since the gelding was a three-year-old.

Local owned thoroughbreds among the early arrivals are Big Switch, a 5-year-old horse, which has fared well at the Charles Town and Waterford Park, and Defenseless, Peggy Prim and Lucky Impulse, which have been campaigning on the West Virginia tracks. George Wilson, manager of the lunch counter at the local G. C. Murphy Company store is the owner of Big Switch while Bill Long owns the other trio of runners.

Jay Moore is the newcomer at Fairgo in charge of assigning the stalls to the various racing stables. He replaces Bill McCabe, who was here last year and is now at Waterford Downs, W. Va.

Hemphill To Return

Moore announced yesterday that P. R. Hemphill, of Hagers-town, who has raced at Fairgo for many years, and is now campaigning in the Hub City, has been assigned stalls here for ten thoroughbreds which are expected to arrive Saturday or Sunday.

A's Defeat Bosox, 2-1

Gorman Outthurs Frank Sullivan

BOSTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Veteran Tom Gorman served a homer to Jimmy Piersall on his first pitch and then blanked Boston the rest of the way today as the lowly Kansas City A's edged the Red Sox 2-1.

Gorman scattered seven hits and was in trouble only in the eighth inning as he went the distance for the third time this year and earned his fifth triumph against nine setbacks.

The bespectacled righthander was given fine support in the field and was saved by a sparkling play by shortstop Joe DeMaestri in the eighth.

There were two out and men on first and second when Piersall smashed a wicked grounder between third and second. DeMaestri ranged far to his right and stabbed the ball. He couldn't make a play but his stop saved a run which would have tied the game.

Billy Klaus fled out, with the bases loaded, to end the inning.

The A's scored both their runs in the fifth on singles by Vic Power, Gus Zernial and Bob Cerv, and a sacrifice fly by Bob Martyn.

Mrs. Glick Enters Golf Semi-Finals

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Baltimore and Washington each advanced two players into the semifinals of the Maryland State Women's Golf Championship today at Prince Georges Country Club. Baltimore survivors were Mrs. Maurice Glick, medalist and eight-time champion from Woodholme, and Mrs. Claude Richards of the C. C. of Maryland. Washington winners were Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington G&CC, and Mrs. John Barry of Columbia, the defending champion.

Mrs. Glick quickly ended the upset hopes of 18-year-old Jane Schiller of the Green Hill Club, Salisbury, Md., with a 7 and 6 victory.

In tomorrow's semifinals, Mrs. Glick meets Mrs. Egenroad, and Mrs. Richards plays Mrs. Barry.

Val Joe Walker Traded To Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Val Joe Walker, defensive half-back for the Detroit Lions, has been added to the roster of the San Francisco 49ers, the National League pro football team announced today.

The 49ers gave up an undisclosed draft choice for the player. Walker played with Green Bay for four seasons and was traded to Detroit this year. He is 6 feet 1, weighs 178, and comes from Southern Methodist University.

Banks Belts 42d Home Run As Cubs Win

Chicago Defeats Robin Roberts 6-4

CHICAGO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Ernie Banks regained the major league home run lead with his 42nd round-tripper and rookie Dick Drott gained his 15th pitching triumph today as the Chicago Cubs beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-4.

Besides unloading back-to-back homers against Robin Roberts in the fourth inning, Banks and Walt Moryn accounted for five RBI between them. Banks also collected a pair of doubles and Moryn clubbed a run-scoring two-bagger in the eighth.

Harry Anderson tied a Philadelphia club record for a rookie when he hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning.

Roberts, in going down to his 21st setback, hooked up in a scoreless duel with Drott until the fourth. Then Bob Speake singled and Banks and Moryn hit out-of-the-park shots in succession. Banks put the Cubs ahead for good when he doubled to bring in Drott in the fifth.

Anthony, Moore Are Even Choices For Title Bout

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18 (AP)—Champion Archie Moore and challenger Tony Anthony were even money choices today for their world light heavyweight title fight Friday night and many experts predict a knockout well before the 15-round limit.

As Moore, the fortyish king of the 175-pounders and his 22-year-old rival from New York indulged in light loosening drills in the gym, their heavy work over, the fight mob freely forecast a comparatively early end to the nationally televised affair at the Olympic Auditorium. It will be blacked out for 150 miles in this area.

Weigh-in time for the fight, which starts at 7 p. m., Pacific Daylight Time, is 10 a. m. Friday.

Colts Ticket Sales Hit Record 25,730

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Baltimore Colts announced today season ticket sales had reached a record 25,730 with more than a week left before they open their National Football League campaign.

Their previous high was the 25,641 sold last year.

General Manager Don Kell said season ticket sales will officially close 9 p. m., Sept. 25.

"But I told the office if anyone comes in with his money after that time not to throw him out."

The Colts' first league game is at home Sept. 29 against the Detroit Lions.

Board Studies Rockefeller's Baseball Plan

No Decision Made On Dodgers Move

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—New York City's Board of Estimate explored for two hours today Nelson A. Rockefeller's latest proposal to keep the Dodgers in Brooklyn and then adjourned without announcing any decision.

Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers, had agreed to defer his decision on whether to move the club to Los Angeles until the board had time to consider the proposal presented to him and Mayor Robert Wagner at a morning conference at Gracie Mansion, the mayor's official home.

Wagner, who called a special meeting of the board a day in advance of the regular meeting, described today's session as "an exploratory discussion." He said nothing was settled and also declined to disclose the contents of Rockefeller's latest proposal.

"We gave the contents of this morning's conference to the board and they are going to consider it," he said. "There were lots of questions raised. We are going to discuss the question further tomorrow. The board wants a full explanation and time to think about it."

Tomorrow's decision, if one is made, may have a bearing on whether the Dodgers stay in Brooklyn or move to the West Coast city. It will take nine of the 16 votes on the board to approve Rockefeller's plan.

Entry List Large For Fourth Horse Show At Bedford

Show Manager A. M. Hine, and his assistants are rapidly concluding their preparations for the Fourth Annual Bedford Horse Show to be held at the local Fair Grounds Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The show this year is a full member show of the American Horse Shows Association, and is sponsored by the Bedford Boot and Saddle Club, with the cooperation of the Bedford Lions Club, Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Junior Chamber of Commerce and other local civic groups.

Mr. Hine states that he and registration chairman, C. K. Hughes, have found it difficult to keep up with the large number of entries that have been arriving daily, and that unquestionably this will be the finest show, both in number and quality, that has been presented in this area.

Sheetz Hurls 2nd Shutout, Spa Blanks Peskin's, 4-0

Hermans, Sport Shoppe Advance

Allen Sheetz hurred his second consecutive shutout victory in two nights as the Spa Bar Blanketed Peskin's Oshemen, 4-0, last night in the opening game of the Western Maryland Softball Tournament tripleheader at Penn Avenue Field.

In advancing to the semi-finals tonight the Spa Bar tossers showed over three runs in the second inning for all the help Sheetz needed as he struck out six and allowed only three hits. He white-washed Lacy's, 6-0, on four hits in the first round on Tuesday night.

Durbin Hits Home Run
Billmyer's double was the only extra base blow allowed by the Spa righthander. Stuckley and Showers obtained the other two hits, both singles.

White Sox Edge Pesky Birds, 7-5

Retain Feeble Chance In Race

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox held off the pesky Baltimore Orioles for a 7-5 victory tonight, maintaining their feeble mathematical chance for first place in the American League.

The Sox had to scrap to protect a six-run lead from the fifth inning on to say within 6½ games of the league-leading New York Yankees. The Sox have 11 victories to play and the Yanks, 4-1 victors over Detroit this afternoon, have eight.

Although the White Sox jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning and ran across five more in the fifth, they helped the Orioles stay within striking distance with a faulty defense.

The Orioles scored three unearned runs out of five to trail by only 7-5 through seven innings. The Birds scored twice in the seventh on only one single by pinch hitter Bob Boyd with shortstop Sammy Esposito's error opening the gate.

Leftfielder Minnie Minoso dropped Bill Gardner's liner for another Oriole run. Gardner moved to third on an infield out and scored on a sacrifice fly.

The Oriole earned runs were scored in the fourth on Billy Goodman's double and Bob Nieman's single and in the fifth on Len Green's first major league homer.

The highlight of Chicago's decisive five-run rally in the fifth was a homer by Ron Jackson, his first since being recalled from Indianapolis where he had socked 21.

Duke Seeks Timing On Offense Plays

DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 18 (AP)—Duke put in some intensive work on its own play timing as the Blue Devils went through their last rough contact drill today before Saturday night's opening with South Carolina in Columbia.

Coach Bill Murray, on the losing end of a 7-0 verdict to the Gamecocks in last year's opener, cautioned his players on the strength of the opening foe.

"You will have to be on your toes and play hard all the way to win," Murray said.

Injured Trio Rejoins Deacons

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Sept. 18 (AP)—Halfbacks Larry Brooks and Tom Crowder and end Henry Martin rejoined the Wake Forest squad today as the Deacons moved back outdoors for practice in preparation for their season opener against Florida at Gainesville a week from Saturday.

With return of the three injured players, it was the first time in more than a week that all 44 members of the squad had been in full gear.

Garcia, Harrell Star As Tribe Beats Nats, 8-3

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Mike Garcia won his sixth straight game and his 12th of the season tonight as Cleveland defeated Washington, 8-3. Billy Harrell, who batted across three runs with a double in a five-run fifth inning, led Cleveland's 14-hit attack with three hits.

The Senators spurred into a 3-lead against Garcia, who allowed 10 hits, but the Indians sandwiched three hits among three walks in the fifth to give him a 6-3 advantage. Garcia then rationed the Senators to one hit in each of the last five innings.

Cleveland picked up two more runs in the eighth against Dick Hyde when George Strickland singled, Joe Caffe tripled and Bobby Avila singled.

Jim Lemon obtained four singles in as many chances to pace the Senators' attack.

Virginia Gridders Point For Mounties

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Sept. 18 (AP)—Virginia's football squad, pointing for Saturday's West Virginia opener, worked on an accelerated schedule today, making up for time lost because of rain this week.

Coach Ben Martin supervised team and individual drills on several running and pass specialties. Indications are several sophomores will have prominent roles in the first varsity test against the Mountaineers, at least in supporting action. They include Dave Graham and Mike Riley, a pair of big ends, and George Sempeles, 210-pound tackle.

VMI Holds Drills In Field House

LEXINGTON, Va., Sept. 18 (AP)—VMI moved to its field house for football drills today because of a pouring rain that never let up.

The Keydets had some contact work, but space was too limited to allow much accomplishment.

Nemacolin District Scouts Attend FSTC Round Table

October-November Themes Are Outlined

FROSTBURG — Over 100 Scouts, Cubs and leaders of the Nemacolin district, Boy Scouts of America, attended a round table meeting at Frostburg State Teachers College Monday night.

Myles G. Thompson, district commissioner, was in charge of the assembly and after greeting the gathering and briefing them upon the purpose of the meeting, he retired to take part in a conference with the neighborhood commissioners.

Francis Richardson and Estel Oster, assistant district commissioners then took charge of the cub scout meeting, while William Allee and Herbert Lehr, assistant district commissioners opened the meeting of scouts and scouters. Discussions were held in both meetings concerning appropriate programs and meeting themes for October and November.

The cub scouts, assisted by their den mothers, had made a number of masks, costumes and decorations appropriate for the Halloween season, and many interesting pieces of handicraft were exhibited by members of the dens.

The October-November theme suggested for the boy scout troops was "Geology." Kenneth M. Stone, advisor to Explorer Post 10 of LaVale, displayed a complete collection of metals and minerals found in this section of Western Maryland and Dr. Robert T. Novak, teacher of geography at Frostburg State Teachers College, talked to the group about the display.

Dr. Novak explained how the various forms of stone develop and how they may be identified. He pointed out the differences in sandstone and limestone and illustrated how marble can be etched or even dissolved with acids, while granite will remain unaffected.

Scouts and scout leaders from Cumberland, Frostburg, Cresaptown, LaVale and Mount Savage were present, and each troop had a display of handicraft and hand made camping aids and equipment.

The closing ceremony was presented by members of Troop 42, Frostburg, sponsored by the First Methodist Church.

Legion Planning Flag Poles For Area Cemeteries

FROSTBURG — Farrady Post 24, American Legion, is making plans to erect flag poles at each of the local cemeteries to replace the individual flags now placed on the graves of deceased veterans on Memorial Day.

The task of placing the individual flags becomes a little more difficult and complicated each year, post officials said. No matter how many men are put on this detail, each year seems to bring more complaints of graves being overlooked. Therefore, rather than attempt to perform an almost impossible job, the American Legion and its Auxiliary have decided that the single flag properly displayed is the only practical answer.

Flags for individual graves will continue to be supplied by the local post and can be picked up there and placed by veterans' families. Comments on this project will be appreciated by the sponsoring organizations, Legion officials said.

Cards of Thanks
I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all my friends, relatives and neighbors who were so kind to me during my recent bereavement, the death of my beloved husband, Jacob M. Lewis, I especially wish to thank the minister, the pallbearers, those who were floral tributes, those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral and to all others who in any manner rendered assistance. I am indeed grateful.

Stock Market Registers Another Timid Advance

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—The stock market moved timidly higher today. It was the second day of small advances, but the two combined have not wiped out half of Monday's decline.

At the finish radio-televisions, tobaccos, metals and most steels and retail merchandisers showed gains. Aircrafts and sulphur stocks were lower. Oils, rails and motors were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks closed 30 cents higher at $173.20 with the industrials up 50 cents, rails up 10 cents and utilities unchanged.

Of 1,098 issues traded, 451 advanced and 366 declined. There were 11 new highs for the year and 40 new lows.

Civil Defense Raid Reaction 'Quite Good'

Difficulty Develops In Siren Mechanism

Reaction of motorists and pedestrians of Cumberland and Allegany County was "quite good" last night during a Civil Defense Air Raid Alert.

This comment was made by William G. Barger, county CD director, who said traffic halted along the main arteries of Cumberland and those approaching the city limits.

He said traffic throughout the county came to a halt with the exception of some isolated places where motorists may not have heard the "take cover" signal sounded at 6:45 p. m.

Mr. Barger said volunteer fire companies of the county "stood by" during the five-minute alert. He was at the CD headquarters in Constitution Park monitoring radio traffic, which was quite heavy during the simulated air raid.

He said the overall purpose of the raid was to acquaint the public with public action signals and know what to do in the event of enemy attack.

Communication Setup

A communication setup in the county notifies police, firemen, hospitals and hotels as well as industry within minutes of an expected attack.

Explorer Scout Post 10 of LaVale was tested on emergency mobilization last night. They were given a mission of distributing CD instruction cards to residents of that community. They were called about 6:15 p. m. when the alert was sounded and given about half an hour to gather at LaVale Methodist Church to distribute the cards.

Arthur B. Gibson, CD coordinator for the city said the alert results were "satisfactory" and he received favorable reports from the various workers of the city. He was on the job near his home on Braddock Road and commented some 20 or more cars had come to a halt, although one driver decided to drive around the parked cars to learn what was going on.

City Police informed Mr. Gibson that the response was good along the city streets.

At Central Fire Station, the nerve center of the county, some mechanical difficulty occurred in the master control box for the CD sirens in the city.

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker was able to keep the "take cover" siren going. He said that this morning a local electric company will be notified to put the master box back in shape.

Police Get Calls

City police received a number of inquiries by telephone after the alert sounded at 6:15 p. m. One resident was wondering if the alert was real, another wondered why the sirens were blowing and another said apparently the electricity was being tried out.

There were exceptions to the smooth workings of the alert.

One police officer said that in general auto traffic came to a halt downtown, although there is need of more "teeth in the law" governing CD procedure during a raid.

One observer noted that some persons continued to walk along Bedford Street rather than halt. One man and two little girls took cover at City Hall and were apparently confused as to the clear. They came back out into the street and walked to their car.

Shortly after the "all clear," volunteer companies throughout the county began reporting to Central. Such companies as LaVale and Bowling Green said traffic had stopped in those communities.

County CD Movie Showing Cancelled

The showing of a 20-minute film on Civil Defense activity in Allegany County, originally scheduled tomorrow night at City Hall, has been cancelled according to William G. Barger, county CD director.

Organizations interested in seeing the movie are asked to contact Mr. Barger, who said arrangements would be made to have a speaker narrate the picture.

COLLECTION DAY TODAY

Seek Cover In CD Test

The above picture was taken shortly after the "take cover" signal was sounded in Cumberland yesterday evening during a Civil Defense Air Raid Alert. A number of pedestrians seen on the street were seeking cover for the five minute raid. Motorists also came to a halt during the test which was state-wide with the exception of Montgomery County and Hagerstown. CD officials said reaction by the public was "quite good," in most county areas.

County Outlines Army Reserve Center Views

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners has no objection to the use of a portion of the County Garage property in the North End for a U. S. Army Reserve Center so long as the installation does not interfere with the operations of the County Garage.

William H. Lemmert, president of the county commissioners, has sent a letter to Col. J. L. Keefe, U. S. Military District, Fort Holabird, Baltimore, outlining the county's position. Col. Keefe had written the commissioners August 7 expressing an interest in the property.

The area in question is north of the County Garage and east of Stitches Field.

Mr. Lemmert's letter emphasized that the county commissioners had not been able definitely to determine the scope of the area considered as the possible site of the center but have no desire to indicate any lack of interest in this center.

The county commissioners are willing to consider a portion of the county property as a possible site for the reserve center provided the building will be located above the stock pile of crude stone on the garage property.

It was suggested that a survey be made before proceeding further so there will be no mistake as to the extent of the center. Mr. Lemmert closed by saying that the commissioners would be pleased to discuss the matter further with a representative of Col. Keefe.

League Requests County Funds

The Allegany County League for Crippled Children has written the Board of County Commissioners requesting its annual contribution from the county.

A letter from Miss Henrietta Lippold, executive secretary of the league, came to the commissioners Tuesday. She expressed appreciation for past contributions.

Section 70 of the Public Local Laws of Allegany County authorizes the county commissioners to levy a sum not to exceed $6,000 for charitable institutions. Of this amount at least $1,000 goes to the League for Crippled Children. In the last session of the General Assembly, the section was amended to increase the total to $7,000, of which at least $500 is earmarked for Friends Aware of Handicapped Children.

Girl Is Arrested For Shoplifting

City Police yesterday afternoon picked up a 13-year-old local girl for shoplifting a sweater and skirt from a local dress shop. She was released into the custody of her parents pending a hearing in Juvenile Court. Police who picked up the girl on Baltimore Street about 5 p. m. said she was wearing the sweater taken from the store and also had taken a skirt. The clothing was valued at $8.98, police said.

Teachers Elect Md. Convention Delegation

Vacancies Filled In Three Offices

L. Hayes Chambers, RFD 1, teacher at Pennsylvania Avenue, was confirmed as president of the Allegany County Teacher Association last night at a meeting in Beall High School, Frostburg. Mr. Chambers, who was elected vice president at the annual meeting last spring, succeeds William J. Donahue, resigned.

Elected to the office of vice president to fill the vacancy created by the elevation of Mr. Chambers was Oberlin T. Chaney, of Welsh Hill, Frostburg, a teacher at Cresaptown.

Elected to fill a vacancy on the association's legislative committee to replace Mr. Chambers, who as president is also a member of the committee, was Homer S. Higgins, Vocke Drive, supervisor of pupil personnel for the Board of Education.

The association also elected delegates and alternates to the annual teachers' convention to be held next month in Baltimore.

Named to represent elementary teachers are Samuel Lisanti, Columbia Street School, Mrs. Phyllis Wallace, LaVale School, and Miss Martha Shaner, Johnson Heights, delegates; and Mrs. Alyce Edwards, West Side, Mrs. Darlene Pepper, Parkside, and Mrs. Eliza Carter, Johnson Heights, alternates.

Representing junior high teachers are Roy Pepper, Beall Elementary, Raymond Chaney, Bruce, and Robert Thomas, Bruce, delegates; and August Diaz, Cresaptown, Miss Lillian Boughton, Fort Hill, and Glenn Hanna, alternates.

For senior high teachers the delegates are Robert MacMillan, Mt. Savage, Ralph Weimer, Fort Hill, and Thomas Hutcheson, Beall. The alternates are Andy Tsirigotis, Beall, Alexander Garretts Valley, and Thomas Lewis, Mt. Savage.

Elementary principals will be represented by Harold Scott, Piney Plains, delegate; and Paul Arbogast, McCoolle, alternate.

Victor D. Heisey of Fort Hill is delegate for high school principals with J. Hubert Radcliffe, Mt. Savage, as alternate.

Over 300 of the county's teachers attended the meeting.

Poultry Tour Will Feature Garrett Co.

Garrett County will be featured in the annual poultry tour for Allegany County farmers scheduled for Wednesday, October 16, according to County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

The county agent and Wade H. Rice, poultry specialist at the University of Maryland, visited Garrett County Tuesday to arrange details of the tour.

Between 35 and 40 Allegany County men and women are expected to leave the Court House here by bus at 8 a. m. October 16 on the tour.

First stop on the travels into Maryland's westernmost county will be to see the turkey and laying flock of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glaser, who bought the former Humboldt Turkey Farm about one mile south of U. S. Route 40 just east of Grantsville. They have some 4,000 turkeys.

Then the tourists will cross the Mason and Dixon Line to Springs, Pa., to see the 2,500 Leghorn hens in the flock of Edward Davis. These hens are in a house equipped with a slatted wood floor.

Another pre-lunch stop will take the group to the turkey farm of Robert Glatfelter of Bittinger, president of the Garrett County Turkey Growers Association. He owns 7,000 Beltsville white turkeys which use a pole-type turkey house. They also will go to the farm of Clark Schlossnagle at Hoyes to see his 4,000 broilers in a cement block building.

After lunch at Northern High School the Allegany County farmers will visit the farm of Harold Gnegy, who owns 7,000 broilers north of Oakland. They also will visit Garrett County's newest industry, the Sterling Processing Corporation, at Oakland. It has been in operation since April and employs 100. Final stop will be at the poultry laboratory operated by Dr. Donald Glatfelter, veterinarian, at Oakland.

Low-Flying Jets Raise Commotion

Two low-flying jet airplanes which zoomed over Cumberland yesterday about noon caused quite a bit of commotion when an unusually loud blast was caused by one of the planes.

An area resident said the noise sounded as if the plane had crashed in the Baltimore Pike section some five miles east of here.

But a check with the Municipal Airport showed no planes were reported missing in this general area. The airport received a number of calls concerning the unusual sound.

Warren Mullenax, manager of the local airport, was flying at the time and took a ride through the valley in the Baltimore Pike section but did not see any evidence of a crashed plane.

One man said the planes seemed to have entered the Cumberland area over Wills Mountain and made a wide sweep toward Baltimore Pike.

Boy Arrested Here Not Being Sought By Detroit Police

Maryland State Police have received information from Detroit authorities on a 15-year-old boy who was picked up on Tuesday for attempting to steal a car in the Narrows.

They said the boy had been released from the Ypsilanti (Mich.) State Hospital on August 16 but was not being sought at this time.

State Police said they have been unable to contact the boy's mother as there is no telephone at the residence in Detroit.

The boy is being held in the detention home of Allegany County Infirmary.

Kiwanians To Hear Congressman Hyde

In observance of U. S. Citizenship Week, the Cumberland Kiwanis Club will hear Rep. De Witt S. Hyde of the Sixth Congressional District at its meeting at Central YMCA at 12:15 p. m. today.

U. S. Citizenship Week is being observed because 170 years ago on September 17, 1787, 39 delegates signed the U. S. Constitution. Rep. Hyde will discuss the Constitution briefly and will explain some of the accomplishments and failures of the first session of the 85th Congress.

County UF Units Progress In Organizing

James Stein To Head Drive In Ridgeley

Organizational plans within the county division of the County United Fund are going full speed ahead, according to William Walsh, chairman of that division.

Mr. Walsh said yesterday that James W. Stein has been named chairman of the drive in Ridgeley and plans for that town's organization and selection of committees and captains will be made at a meeting there next week.

Steering committee chairmen with the responsibility of selecting the chairmen of their respective towns also were announced by Mr. Walsh.

Chairmen Listed

They include Quentin L. Griffey, Ellerslie; Mrs. Elsie Roland, Flintstone; Miss Colette McNamee, Mt. Savage; Mrs. Homer Golden, Corriganville; Joseph H. Pelleri, Oldtown; Willis Scott, Vale Summit, and George D. Walters, Eckhart.

Several meetings are planned throughout the county in the next few days. Today at 7:30 there will be a meeting of the steering committee of Frostburg at the Elks' home. Mr. Walsh and Thomas W. Miller, consultant to CUF, will attend the meeting to assist in setting up the organization.

Another meeting is scheduled in Frostburg Friday at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. J. C. Coby. At this meeting chairmen will be named for Eckhart Mines, Zihlman, Hoffman, Borden Shaft, Midlothian, Wrights Crossing and Grahams town.

Meetings Held

At meetings last night in Barton and Midland, Adolf Blunk, a director, met with the co-chairmen there to help organize teams for that section. Robert Blair and William Wilson and chairmen in Midland, and Rev. Ellwood Carey and Irvin Martin head the drive in Barton.

William R. Carscaden, a director of the CUF, in address to the PTA of Lonaconing elementary school Tuesday, listed the work of the CUF and emphasized the necessity of an all-out effort to make the drive a successful one in that community.

Edward McPartland, chairman of the drive in Lonaconing, and a director of the CUF, announced at the meeting Tuesday that the first organizational meeting for the town will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the VFW home there.

Boy Hospitalized After Swallowing Lunch Money

A fourth grade pupil at Central Elementary School in Lonaconing yesterday morning swallowed his lunch money.

Terry Steele, about 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Steele, High Street, Lonaconing, is a patient in Miners Hospital in Frostburg where he was taken for observation and X-rays.

The lad swallowed a quarter about 9 a. m. and, becoming frightened, notified his teacher who took him to the principal's office.

The principal, Miss Alice McCormick, took the boy to the hospital in her car.

Winfield Gets Permit For New Dwelling

Edward D. Winfield, RFD 3, Bedford Road, has obtained a permit from the Allegany County assessing department for construction of a new dwelling in Election District 5.

Mr. Winfield estimated the cost of his brick veneer house at $5,000. The one-story building will be 24 feet by 40 feet in size.

Child Study Leaders End Workshop

Schools Plan Revised Program

The 13 leaders for the 1957-58 parent-child study program in the Allegany County public schools will complete a three-day workshop at the Board of Education office today in preparation for this revised program.

After a three-day workshop in May, a summer of studying various texts on the topic and now a second workshop, the leaders are believed well equipped to direct the parent-child study groups in the various schools of the county.

"Children's Relationship With Other Children" has been selected as the general theme for the six sessions of the study groups to be held in the coming months. The parents in each group will decide just how often they would like to meet. Most of the groups are expected to meet every two weeks.

On Getting Along

At the workshop ending today, it has been emphasized that one of the most important things to teach a child is to learn to get along with other people. It was stressed that 80 per cent of the people who lose their jobs are fired because of their inability to get along with other people rather than because of a lack of skill.

The workshop is being conducted by Dr. John Kurtz of the Child Study Institute of the University of Maryland. Assisting him are J. D. Goering of the institute, Homer S. Higgins, supervisor of pupil personnel in the county public schools, and the three visiting teachers in the county, Miss Esther M. Carter, Frederick H. Sheeley and Eugene J. Hopkins. Miss Sara Leiter, the new state supervisor of pupil services, also has been assisting in the program.

The leaders of the workshop do not believe that the one basic theme for the six sessions of the groups will solve all of the problems of the participating parents. They believe it is a good starting point. Later they will go into cultural influences and other phases of the program.

Closed Groups

Under the new program this year, the parent-child study groups will be closed after registration next Monday and Tuesday. Registration is scheduled in all schools of the county, high school as well as elementary school, between 1 and 4 p. m. Monday and Tuesday. All interested parents are invited.

Mr. Higgins expects to have all of the registrations in his office not later than next Wednesday. After this two-day registration no more parents will be allowed to enroll. It is hoped to have at least 25 in each group.

The workshop leaders are emphasizing that school officials know how children grow and develop and through these discussion groups hope to pass along the information to interested parents.

Leaders who will conduct the study program are Mrs. Clara Mae Vogtman, 31 Grant Street, Frostburg; Mrs. Janette McFarland, 77 Spring Street, Frostburg; Mrs. Ruby Adams, RFD 3, Keyser; Mrs. Ruth Gates, LaVale; Mrs. Florence Snelson, Midland; Mrs. Herbert Natale, 901 Shades Lane; Mrs. Elizabeth Pfeiffer, 425 Columbia Street; Mrs. Katherine Kyle, Flintstone; Mrs. Calvin Kelter, 601 Bedford Street; Mrs. Juanita Islingier, RFD 6, Roberts Place; Mrs. Kathleen Kave, 114 Reynolds Street; Mrs. Margaret Wolfe, RFD 1, Oldtown, and Mrs. Jean Howard, RFD 2, Flintstone.

Tydings Talk On Agenda For Young Demos

Party Members To Question Leaders

BALTIMORE, Sept. 18 (AP)—Millard E. Tydings will address the Maryland Young Democrats convention in Ocean City on Saturday night, convention officials announced today.

It will be the first major political appearance for the former U. S. senator since his dramatic 1956 campaign was crushed by a severe case of shingles.

In announcing Tydings' acceptance to address the convention banquet Walter R. Tabler Jr., chairman of the arrangements committee, said the young Democrats also will have a chance to fire questions at a host of senior party members seeking statewide office.

They will appear at a Saturday morning panel discussion to answer questions prepared by convention delegates and screened by a special committee including newsmen.

Leaders On Panel

Tabler said the panelists will include Comptroller J. Millard Tawes and H. C. Byrd, who have filed for the party's 1958 senatorial nomination, and Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro Jr. of Baltimore, who is regarded as a potential candidate.

Others, said Tabler, will be Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert, reported ready to seek re-election, and James Bruce, former U. S. ambassador to Argentina who has announced he will run for the senatorial nomination.

Pre-convention maneuvering was brisk, with two behind-the-scenes battles raging among the young (under 40) delegates.

After a Tuesday night meeting of Western Shore delegates William Hickey, Silver Spring lawyer, emerged as a formidable candidate for the Young Democrats presidency being vacated by Elroy Boyer, Chestertown lawyer.

Eastern Shore delegates, who last year successfully led Boyer's campaign, were said ready to offer James Lynch, Ridgely oil dealer, as their new candidate.

Delegation Squabble

Another key fight found two factions from Baltimore's Third Legislative District challenging each other's delegates to the convention.

A group headed by Ed Borgerding and one led by David Preller each claims it is the only legal delegation representing the Third District Young Democrats Club. Since Preller's faction helped engineer the selection of Hickey as the Western Shore presidential candidate, the intra-district fight could have a strong bearing on the outcome of the election.

The Third District squabble will be resolved by the credentials committee at the outset of the three-day convention Friday.

Rat-Infested Areas Found Near City

A representative of Vogel-Ritt of Penn-Mar-Va. Inc., at Hagerstown, a pest exterminator concern, has notified Street Commissioner William H. Buchholz, that rat-infested areas exist on properties adjacent to the city limits.

Recently a complaint was received at City Hall that live rats were roaming in the vicinity of residences on Wempe Drive. Mr. Buchholz requested that a representative of the Hagerstown concern make an inspection tour of the affected area.

M. L. Barbe complied with the request and made a tour of the area along the stream at Louisiana Avenue and Oldtown Road on Tuesday.

The firm said Mr. Barbe was "unable to find any evidence, there being no burrows of any kind nor tracks which would indicate that infestation exists on the city property."

"He did observe that on the private properties there are rabbit pens and chicken coops and one of the owners indicated that he had seen rats around his rabbit pen."

"This, therefore, is an indication that the infestation exists on properties adjacent to that of the city."
